

CATALOGUE and true note of the Names of such Persons which

(upon good liking they have to the worke being a great helpe to memorie) have receaved the Etymologicall DICTIONARIE of XI. Languages viz. English, Britishe or Welch, French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguez, High-Dutch, Low-Dutch, Latine, Greeke, Hebrew: with the Reasons and Derivations of words in all these Tongues, with the expofition of the Termes of the Lawes of this Land, and the description of Offices, and Titles of Dignities, from the handes of Maister MINSKAP the Author, and Publisher of the same in Print; In consideration they finde, that by compiling and printing the same, at his owne charge, for the publicke good, and the advancement of Learning and Knowledge hee hath not onely exhausted and spent thereon all his stocke and substance, but also runne himselfe into many and great debtes, impossible for him ever to pay, without the assistance of like Receivers of the said Bookes from his hands: In regard the Company of Stationers of London, vterly refusing to buy them from him, He is forced to tender them himselfe, to such like worthe persons as are heere in this Catalogue truly set downe. The truth whereof if any question or doubt off; they may enquire of any whose Names he heere presumes to publish to witnesse the same: offering himselfe to any censure, if he shall set downe any name or thing herein, that agrees not with the approved veritie. All which as himselfe, here refers to all mens worthe Natures and generous Interpretations, remaining hopefull of them, as to these already much in duty bound, if they may be pleased, vpon the sight and reading of so many Names of Noblesse, & worth to follow their examples in their fauour to good letters to helpe to take of the rest of his Bookes. In doing whereof their Names are likewise to be inserted into this Catalogue with the former, and the Author remaine in like manner equally to them as to the rest for ever obliged and bound to doe them Honour and Service.

If in set, & were these Names, there hath not bene obserued the respect due to the Ranks and qualities of persons, Hee treatst Reader to vnderstand that he hath not done it out of neglect of the regard he owes to them, but only to follow the order he vnderstandeth of the Bookes to them, which was not according to their degrees, but promiscuously as they tooke them.
